

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

cover the opening which shall be attached by means of strong hinges of iron or steel, and such door shall be tightly closed excepting only when it is opened temporarily in order to throw in the manure each morning. Each manure bin shall be made sufficiently large to hold all manure or used bedding and sweepings for a period of two or three months, and allowances shall be made in constructing such manure bin for at least 25 square feet of ground area for each horse, mule, or cow kept on the premises.

Manure—Use on Gardens, Lawns, etc. (Ord. 32, Aug. 1, 1916.)

SEC. 31. It shall be unlawful for any person to throw, place, or allow any fresh manure to remain in or upon any garden, lawn, or open lot in the city of St. Augustine. Manure intended for fertilizing purposes may be used, providing it has remained in a screened manure bin, as required by the foregoing section, for a period of at least two weeks, and providing further that such manure shall contain no maggots or fly larvæ.

Hogs—Keeping in City Prohibited. (Ord. 32, Aug. 1, 1916.)

SEC. 24. The keeping or herding of hogs in pens or otherwise within the city limits of the city of St. Augustine is hereby prohibited, and any person or persons violating this section of this ordinance shall be punished as provided for violations of this ordinance, and this ordinance shall apply to hogs owned by persons outside the city limits but found running at large within the limits of the city of St. Augustine.

Domestic Animals—Disposal of Dead Bodies. (Ord. 32, Aug. 1, 1916.)

SEC. 27. It shall be the duty of every person or persons, agent or agents, owner or owners of any cattle, horses, dogs, cats, hogs, goats, or any other animal, dying or found dead within the city limits of St. Augustine to forthwith remove and bury, or otherwise satisfactorily dispose of same in a sanitary manner, such animal at some place approved by the sanitary inspector, and where the person or persons, agent or agents, or owner of such dead animal is not known, then it shall be the duty of the owner upon whose property such animal was found dead to remove and bury such dead animal as above provided for.

Garbage and Refuse—Care and Disposal—Receptacles. (Ord. 32, Aug. 1, 1916.)

SEC. 18. All premises within the city limits of St. Augustine shall be kept free from garbage, swill, or other refuse matter, except that such garbage, swill, or other refuse matter may be temporarily placed in water-tight, flyproof, galvanized-iron cans, equipped with close-fitting tops or covers, and such garbage receptacles shall be placed in a convenient place so that their contents may be removed by the city wagons or the collectors authorized by the city health officer to collect such wastes.

Nuisances Defined. (Ord. 32, Aug. 1, 1916.)

SEC. 28. Where not specifically stated and provided for in the foregoing sections a sanitary nuisance is hereby defined to be the commission of an act by an individual, organization, or corporation, or the keeping, maintaining, propagation, existence, or permission of anything by an individual, organization, or corporation by which the life or health of an individual, or the lives or health of individuals may be threatened or impaired, or by which, or through which, directly or indirectly, disease may be caused.

SEC. 29. Nuisances, injurious to health, are declared to be: Filth, the contents of cesspools, offal, garbage, foul water, dye water, refuse from manufactories, urine, stable manure, decayed animal or vegetable matter, or other offensive substances